SCOUTING

THE SHOPS with Sally

"What's your aunt got to do with 'Scouting the Shops'?" stormed the Editor, pointing at last week's column. "You keep your relatives out of this!"

● We hastily slid out of the door and went up to Jinx for consolation and a thirteen-inch hot dog. Jinx is Daly City's new eating place at the corner of Mission and Vista Grande. They also sell hamburgers, soft drinks and ice cream.

● Bouquet: A big new counter, all white and glistening, has been installed at Farmers Meat company. The glass slopes inwards so that at a single glance you can see a whole array of cheeses, lunch meats, drinks. It makes shopping quick and easy, keeps food fresh and cold.

● Did you know that Irene Dunne and Charles Boyer are coming to the Daly City theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in their newest hit, "Love Affair"?

● When you stop in at Robertson's Egg Store for your fresh eggs, don't forget that Armour's quality pork and beans are only 9c for a large can this week.

● If you can't find it (anything from nails to a new stove) try the Colma hardware and furniture company. And if you're the kind of a person who likes things free (we are!), see their ad on page 6.

● Whenever you make the bed, do your pillows drip feathers all over the rug? If they do, see the special free offer of the Daly City Mattress company on Page 8, good for this week only.

● Our aunt—that is, someone we know—likes the new Frigidaire we bought from A. M. Harrison so well that she is threatening to take it home with her. Says it saves her steps, saves her time, saves her money. (We hope we can save the Frigidaire!)

● She also likes the nice fresh milk we get from Mission cream-

Daly City Memorial Day Service At Vista Grande Park Well Attended

"We are still in a war dedicated to the defense of the proposition that 'all men are created equal,' and we must keep fighting that war," stated J. Emmett Chapman of George Washington Post, American Legion, main speaker of the Memorial Day services at Vista Grande park Tuesday.

Chapman stressed the necessity of educating children to the dangers of the "isms," saying that the younger generation is in the front ranks in combating these invaders.

Master of Ceremonies Larry Reilly, adjutant of Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion, introduced the program which was sponsored by Old Glory Post No. 2044 with its Auxiliary and firing squad and by Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion, with its Auxiliary. Approximately 500 people attended.

Other speakers were Councilman Henry Sundermann, who introduced Mayor Paul G. Selmi, and William Richards, 95-year-old member of the G. A. R., who spoke briefly. Richards fought in the Battle of Gettysburg with Company A, Fourth Kentucky mounted infantry, G. A. R.

Mrs. Adele Wood, widow of a G. A. R. comrade, was also present.

The Invocation and Benediction were given by Reverend Edmond Ryan of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church. Also participating in the program were Boy Scout Troop No. 101, the drum corps of El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, Native Daughters of the Golden West, and the Jefferson Union high school brass quartet. Following the official program, a drill routine was presented by the juvenile drill team of Miss Rose dance studio.

The services were preceded by a parade representing many of the organizations in Daly City, which marched from the top of the hill to the site of the ceremonies. Participating were the Daly City fire department, Daly City boy and girl scout troops, Junior Game Patrol, Native

Daughters of the Golden West, Old Glory Post and Auxiliary V. F. W. drill teams. American Legion and the juvenile drill team of Miss Rose dance studio. There were also colors from Tanforan Post, V. F. W., San Bruno, and from the Thomas Hickey Post, V. F. W., South San Francisco.

To Give Benefit Whist For Colma Church

Ladies and altar boys of Holy Angels' parish will give a whist party for the benefit of the church Friday, June 2, at 8:30 p. m., in the parish hall, Colma. The committee announce that they have already secured many valuable donations for the success of the affair.

According to the announcement received this week, recent improvements made in the church compel pastor Father J. Sorasio to promote this card party. The public is cordially invited.

Present were Mesdames Bernice McNeerney, A. Mae Cordellos, Ema Ledterman, Betty Eschenauer, Agnes Del Grande, Josephine McHugh, Lillian Yates, Bertha-MacCarthy and Rose Watson.

Local Order To Attend Service

Sponsored by the Grand Orange Lodge of the State, a special Memorial Day service will be conducted at the Portlaurst Community church, Taraval and Thirteenth avenue, at 8 p. m. Sunday.

Reverend T. H. Simpson will preach a sermon based on the words "Our Heritage." The Ser-

Terry Pin's Tips on ELEVATORS

By FREDERIC A. BIRMINGHAM

ELEVATOR boys don't worry about traffic, anyway.

They get sick of up and down, though. Sideways would be a treat. Gravity affects elevator boys much as it does prune pits. They both have to come down. Although prune pits never whistle when no one is in the car.

Some elevators start by pushing a button, instead of turning a crank. This saves time for the elevator boy, who can clean his nails better on the way up.

The more polite an elevator boy is, the worse names you get called later.

vices will be attended by all Bay region lodges, including California True Blue, L. O. L. No. 118. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Vireno, Mission street, now enroute East from New Orleans, Louisiana, report they are having a wonderful time, despite several hard rains with thunder and lightning. Their next stop will be Washington, D. C.

Local members of the General Pershing P. T. A. who motored to San Mateo Friday to attend the seventeenth district installation and later a luncheon at the Benjamin Franklin hotel included Mrs. Getha Mejea, Partridge lane; Past President Sadie Welsch, President Ilda Marquis, Hazel Cassassa, and Eva Carnevale.

Mrs. Norine Lombardi, Guerne-wood Park on Russian River, and Mrs. Helen McDenough, Winchester street, spent Thursday of last week at the Golden Gate International Exposition.

The White Accent

All white or with white lingerie accent is latest decree for the very most fashionable hats. Here are two smart millinery modes that interpret the message of white to highest degree of chic. The black straw hat at the top takes on a flattering cuff brim of broderie Anglaise, stiffly starched and in startling, dramatic white. The fact that white pique is making a big contribution to millinery this season is of utmost importance. Cut-out embroidered white cotton pique borders the brim of the white pique breton with conical crown as shown below in the picture.

"Wife, Husband And Friend" Now Playing At D. C.

Slambang comedy and rollicking romance is the order of the day now that Twentieth Century-Fox's "Wife, Husband and Friend," which co-stars Loretta Young and Warner Baxter, is playing at the Daly City theatre.

Delirious romance filled with unrestrained gaiety and sparkling wit, the new film finds the lovely Loretta Young teamed with Warner Baxter for the second time by Darryl F. Zanuck, production chief of Twentieth Century-Fox.
They last appeared together in "Wife, Doctor and Nurse," one of last season's outstanding comedy hits.

The story of "Wife, Husband and Friend" concerns itself with the hilarious misunderstandings which result when a lovely wife, who has loads of money, a beautiful home and a grand husband, decides that she wants one thing more. A career as a singer.

The film is based on a novel by James M. Cain, famous novelist who wrote such best-sellers as
"The Postman Always Rings Twice" and "Serenade." Since "Wife, Husband and Friend" is gay comedy set against a background of alluring music, Darryl Zanuck looked about for the director who, by his own experience and proven talent, would be best suited to handle the megaphone.
He found him in Gregory Ratoff, famous Russian character actor and comedian, turned director.

The supporting cast of "Wife, Husband and Friend" features
Binnie Barnes, Cesar Romero,
George Barbier, J. Edward Bromberg, Eugene Pallette and Helen Westley. Nunnally Johnson, associate producer, wrote the screen play. The music was written by

Forty-two Children Take Communion

With Holy Angels' church filled to capacity by parents, relatives and friends, a class of forty-two children received their first communion there at the 8:30 mass Sunday. The children were prepared for the occasion by the Sisters of the Holy Family. The retreat, held three days before,
was conducted by the pastor,
Father J. Sorasio.

The church was decorated with flowers, palms and ferns, which were donated by Mrs. Concl. of Lake Merced Nursery and Florist, and other donors through the kindness of Miss Martha Callan, Miss Estelle Rovere, Miss Helen Callan and Mrs. L. Ratto. The music was rendered by girls of the senior class of the Sunday school. Miss Josephine Puricelli sang a solo, accompanied at the organ by Miss Mary Belli.

Beecher Child Christened Sunday

Joyce Arlene Beecher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beecher, Woodrow street, was christened
Saturday at the Ebenezer Lutheran church, Fifteenth and Dolores streets, San Francisco. Pastor Carl Landquist performed the ceremony. Godparents were an aunt and uncle of the baby, Mr.
and Mrs. Milton McKay.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher entertained at their home Saturday evening in honor of Joyce Arlene's first birthday Monday, May 29. The occasion also honored the birthday Saturday of a sister-in-law, Mrs. Rena Beecher.

Telephone Co. Awards Medals

High honors were today accorded employees of three Pacific Coast telephone companies, in the national award of a silver Vail medal to an installer-repairman of Grass Valley, California, and regional awards of bronze Vail medals to a chief operator and operator of Pilot Rock, Oregon. Honorable mention certificates were given to a senior test-boardman of Longview, Washington, two operators of Anaheim, California, and a night chief operator of San Francisco.

Announcement of the 1938 Vail awards "For Noteworthy Public Service," were made here by Lyle M. Brown, division manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, following action by national and regional committees of award of the Bell Telephone System.

ery and says that if folks would drink more milk, they'd live longer and enjoy life more.

● If you want your hair to look nice, try Milo's Beauty Shoppe, where waves are put in to stay. They've a special on permanents, too.

● Good idea: to stock up on handkerchiefs at Henry Warshawski's this week—2 for 5c. Especially recommended for your school children who are prone to lose handkerchiefs often. (Unbleached muslin is only 5c a yard there, too.)

● News flash: a new meat department has just been opened at Casentini's Jefferson Market. Carrying a complete line of strictly fresh, quality meats (including best steer beef and quality lamb), the department will be managed by George Calais, who has had long experience in the business.

Receive Awards

Mrs. Maud Gilbert (left) chief operator, and Miss Erlene Gilliland, operator, of the Independent Telephone Company of Pilot Rock, Oregon, who were awarded bronze Vail medals for their initiative, courage and devotion to public service during the flood which swept the town of Pilot Rock, on June 22, 1938.

George F. Wilson, installer-repairman for The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company at Grass Valley, California, awarded a silver Vail medal for his conspicuous courage, persistence and fortitude in an extreme effort to save the life of a fellow employee, during a blizzard in the mountains near Camptonville, California, on February 9, 1938.

Casentini's also carries a full line of groceries, fresh fruits and vegetables.

● Grocery bargain: Granucci and Sons are selling cucumbers five for a dime this week. (We like them sliced in vinegar.) You can also buy delicious chicken ravioli in there, 25c a card.

● Shoe bargain: The American Shoe shop's big sale on men's and boys' shoes is still in full swing. Savings are spectacular.

● Beeson cleaners, don't forget, will clean a sweater absolutely free with every $2.25 worth of regular cleaning.

● If you keep running out of cold cream, why not stock up on a big tin of theatrical cream for only 49c (regularly 75c) at Edward's Drug Store? It will last for ages, and do all the things that the more expensive creams will.

● Spring melons are now in season and down at Lucca Ravioli they're selling for only 5c apiece. Fancy cherries are 5c a pound and large baskets of fresh peaches are 20c each. Lucca's also carries a quality line of meats and groceries, with substantial savings for the customer.

● If you're in the mood for a picnic, why not take along some picnic specials from Westlake Market? They carry a complete assortment at all times. Not only that—they will also develop your films for you when you come home.

● For lovely spring berries, try Milo's Market. And don't forget that Stokley's canned goods are selling at special prices this week. Oysters, great big ones, are only 30c a dozen and always make a welcome change. Incidentally, sirloin steak is only 24c a pound, and is it good!

● We don't like to sound pessimistic, but if your plumbing does let you down, don't forget that S. N. Pfeifer, registered plumber, can be reached easily and quickly.

● Byrne Radio Store goes to town again this week with a special price on their automatic RCA victrola and new electric tuning radio. This is our vote for the perfect home entertainment outfit.

● Among the week's outstanding bargains must be listed those at Cut-Rate Market. Crystal White soap, for example, is selling 10 bars for 29c. We also noticed a lot of nice fresh fruits and vegetables.

Two trustees at large will be elected for three years in the high school district election.

One elementary school trustee for the Jefferson School district will also be elected tomorrow. Polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m. at Crocker, Woodrow Wilson and Jefferson schools.

Alec Jama, Monterey, spent last week-end visiting with his parents at the family home on Bellevue avenue and Acton street.

Gypsy Jewelry

There's a wealth of good fortune in store for she who wears gypsy moons and stars and jangling bangles designed by Monet to form neck and wrist complements to the gypsy trend in today's costume design. Above in the picture, red, white and blue stones reflect the tones of the striped silk skirt and colored tights. The bangles of bracelet and necklace seem to be tinkling a gypsy serenade tuned to the romance of this colorful costume. The other ensemble follows the simplicity of line expressed in the dress with a chaste white leghorn hat veiled and ribboned, aided and abetted by gypsy jangles at throat and wrist. The crystal and metal chips in bright hues dangle from round metal links. Black slip-on gloves by Kislay of Paris provide a smart accompaniment.
